SITUATION

The Gossip Circle

Your friends are gossiping about someone from church. They turn to you expectantly, waiting for you to add something.

BROAD WAY: Join in. It feels good to belong. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Change the subject or gently say you'd rather not. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Easy Excuse

You promised to visit a sick relative this weekend, but a much more exciting invitation came up. No one will know if you don't go.

BROAD WAY: Skip the visit. You'll go another time. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Keep your promise. The sick relative needs you. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Fasting Challenge

It's a fasting period. Your friends who don't fast are ordering your favorite food. They tease you for fasting.

BROAD WAY: Break the fast. No one from church is watching. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Keep the fast cheerfully, without judging your friends. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Unfair Teacher

A teacher grades you unfairly. You're angry. Your friends say you should complain loudly and make a scene to embarrass the teacher.

BROAD WAY: Rage publicly. Make sure everyone knows you were wronged. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Speak to the teacher privately, calmly, with respect. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Midnight Scroll

It's late. You planned to pray before bed, but your phone is right there. Just five more minutes of scrolling...

BROAD WAY: Keep scrolling. You'll pray tomorrow. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Put the phone down. Open the Agpeya. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Popular Lie

Everyone believes something about a classmate that isn't true. You know the truth, but correcting them would make you unpopular.

BROAD WAY: Stay quiet. It's not your problem. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Speak the truth kindly, even if it costs you. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Grudge

Someone hurt you months ago and never apologized. You see them at church every week. The resentment is still there.

BROAD WAY: Avoid them. Hold onto your right to be angry. (+0 Virtue)

SITUATION

The Secret Sin

You've been struggling with something privately. Your confession father asks how you're doing. You could say "fine" and move on.

BROAD WAY: Say "I'm fine." Keep it hidden. (+0 Virtue)

SITUATION

The Comparison Trap

You see a friend's perfect life on social media. Envy rises. You start composing a post to make your life look equally impressive.

BROAD WAY: Post something exaggerated. Compete. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Begin to forgive, even without an apology. (Draw a Trial)

NARROW WAY: Be honest. Open your heart in confession. (Draw a Trial)

NARROW WAY: Close the app. Thank God for what you have. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Lazy Sunday

You're exhausted. The liturgy starts early. Your bed is warm. Missing one Sunday won't matter... right?

BROAD WAY: Sleep in. You deserve rest. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Get up. The Body and Blood of Christ are worth the effort. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Cheating Opportunity

During an exam, you can see another student's answers. The teacher isn't looking. You're struggling with this question.

BROAD WAY: Look. No one will ever know. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Look away. Accept whatever grade you earn honestly. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Generous Moment

You have money saved for something you want. A family at church is struggling. You could help, but no one is asking you to.

BROAD WAY: Keep your money. Someone else will help them. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Give quietly, without telling anyone. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Harsh Word

Your sibling said something annoying. A cutting response rises to your lips. You know exactly what to say to hurt them.

BROAD WAY: Say it. They started it. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Swallow the words. Respond gently or stay silent. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Mockery

Someone at school mocks your faith. "You still believe in that?" Others laugh. You feel the heat of shame.

BROAD WAY: Downplay your faith. Laugh along. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Stand calmly in your faith. You don't need to argue. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Boring Service

You're serving in Sunday school but you're bored of it. A friend invites you to quit and do something more fun on Sundays.

BROAD WAY: Quit. It's not rewarding anymore. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Persevere. Ask God to renew your love for service. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Prideful Win

You succeeded at something publicly. Pride swells. You want everyone to know how good you are.

BROAD WAY: Boast. Post about it. Accept all the praise. (+0 Virtue)

SITUATION

The Lonely Outsider

A new person at youth group sits alone. Your group is comfortable. Including them would change the dynamic.

BROAD WAY: Stay comfortable. They'll figure it out. (+0 Virtue)

SITUATION

The Angry Prayer

Something terrible happened. You're angry at God. You don't feel like praying. Silence feels easier than honesty.

BROAD WAY: Stop praying. God doesn't seem to listen anyway. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Thank God quietly. Deflect the praise. (Draw a Trial)

NARROW WAY: Walk over. Introduce yourself. Welcome Christ in the stranger. (Draw a Trial)

NARROW WAY: Pray honestly, even in anger. God can handle your honesty. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Apology Owed

You wronged someone. You know you should apologize but your pride says they deserved what you did.

BROAD WAY: Justify yourself. They had it coming. (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Humble yourself. Apologize sincerely. (Draw a Trial)

SITUATION

The Unseen Kindness

You have a chance to do something kind for someone who will never know it was you. No recognition. No thanks.

BROAD WAY: Why bother if no one will know? (+0 Virtue)

NARROW WAY: Do it secretly. "Your Father who sees in secret will reward you." (Draw a Trial)

TRIAL

Mockery

People laugh at your choice. "Why are you being so serious?" The temptation to give up is real.

Pass: +3 Virtue — Threshold: 3+

TRIAL

Loneliness

The narrow way is lonely. Your friends chose the broad way. You stand alone.

Pass: +3 Virtue — Threshold: 3+

TRIAL

Doubt

"Is this really worth it?" The voice of doubt whispers that virtue is pointless and no one cares.

Pass: +4 Virtue — Threshold: 4+

TRIAL

Exhaustion

You're tired. Doing the right thing takes energy you barely have. The easy path beckons.

Pass: +2 Virtue — Threshold: 2+

TRIAL

Temptation

The thing you're resisting looks so good. Just this once. No one will know.

Pass: +4 Virtue — Threshold: 4+

TRIAL

Grace

In your moment of weakness, you remember a verse, a saint's example, or a word from your confession father. Strength comes.

Automatic Pass: +5 Virtue

TRIAL

Anger

The injustice of it burns. You did the right thing and got punished for it. Rage threatens to swallow your peace.

Pass: +4 Virtue — Threshold: 4+

TRIAL

Misunderstanding

People misread your motives. They think you're being self-righteous when you're just trying to do right.

Pass: +3 Virtue — Threshold: 3+

TRIAL

Delayed Reward

You did the right thing but nothing good happened. No praise, no result, no change. Was it worth it?

Pass: +3 Virtue — Threshold: 3+

TRIAL

Humiliation

Your faithfulness made you look foolish in front of people whose opinion matters to you.

Pass: +5 Virtue — Threshold: 5+

TRIAL

Persistence

This is the third time you've had to make this same hard choice. Will you keep choosing the narrow way?

Pass: +4 Virtue — Threshold: 4+

TRIAL

Fall

You stumbled. You chose the narrow way but your strength failed. Lose all Virtue earned this round. But remember: Abba Sisoes says, "Get up again."

TRIAL

Peace

Despite the cost, a deep peace settles in your heart. You know you did what was right. God is near.

TRIAL

Companion

Someone else chose the narrow way with you. You're not alone. Courage rises.

Lose all Virtue from this round. But you may try again next round.

Automatic Pass: +5 Virtue

Automatic Pass: +4 Virtue. Another player also gains +2.

TRIAL

Betrayal

Someone you trusted chose the broad way and encouraged others to follow. Their betrayal stings.

Pass: +5 Virtue — Threshold: 5+

TRIAL

Comfort Zone

The narrow way takes you outside everything familiar. New territory. No map. Just trust.

Pass: +3 Virtue — Threshold: 3+

TRIAL

Pride

You chose well and now you feel superior to those who didn't. The narrow way just became a pedestal.

Lose 2 Virtue. Pride turns even good choices into poison.

TRIAL

Joy

Against all expectation, the narrow way fills you with joy. Not pleasure — joy. The deep kind that the world cannot give or take.

Automatic Pass: +6 Virtue
