Water of the Jordan

The baptismal water recalls the Jordan where Christ was baptised, sanctifying all water for our new birth.

BAPTISM

Holy Oil (Ghaliloun)

The oil of gladness anoints the catechumen before immersion, preparing the body to receive the Holy Spirit.

BAPTISM

Three Immersions

Three full immersions in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit — we die and rise with Christ.

BAPTISM

Renunciation of Satan

The catechumen faces west and renounces Satan and all his works, then turns east to confess Christ.

BAPTISM

White Garment

The newly baptised is clothed in white, symbolising the purity of the new life received in Christ.

BAPTISM

Holy Myron

The sacred chrism oil consecrated by the patriarch, carrying a tradition unbroken since the apostles.

CHRISMATION

36 Anointings

The priest anoints 36 parts of the body with Holy Myron, sanctifying every member for God's service.

Seal of the Holy Spirit

Each anointing seals the person as God's own, marking them with the gift of the Holy Spirit.

Breath of the Priest

The priest breathes on the face of the newly anointed, recalling how God breathed life into Adam.

Girdle of Faith

A cord tied around the newly chrismated, symbolising being girded with the armour of faith.

💔

Repentant Heart

True confession begins with a contrite heart that sincerely turns back to God in sorrow and hope.

CONFESSION

📜

Absolution Prayer

The priest prays the absolution, and through the authority given by Christ, sins are forgiven.

CONFESSION

🏩

The Epitrachelion

The priestly stole placed over the penitent's head, signifying the priest's authority to absolve sins.

CONFESSION

🔍

Examination of Conscience

Before confession, we examine our thoughts, words, and deeds honestly before God.

CONFESSION

📚

Penance and Counsel

The father of confession gives guidance and a penance to help the penitent grow in virtue.

CONFESSION

🍞

The Lamb (Bread)

Pure bread chosen and prepared for the liturgy, which will become the Body of our Lord.

🍷

The Wine

Pure grape wine mixed with water, which will become the precious Blood of Christ in the chalice.

🔥

The Epiclesis

The invocation of the Holy Spirit upon the bread and wine to transform them into Christ's Body and Blood.
